

Recruitment and Selection Policy and Procedure

Dated: Jan 2016

Introduction

Excalibur Academies Trust is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment.

EAT will endeavour to attract, recruit and retain staff of high calibre by ensuring that the best possible candidates are appointed.

Recruitment Policy

- Staff will be recruited on the basis of their ability, qualifications and suitability for the position in which they have applied;
- All applicants will be considered equally and consistently;
- All applicants will be subject to an enhanced disclosure and barring service check and all the necessary pre-employment checks before appointment is confirmed.

Recruitment Procedure

- Applicants for employment must complete an application form. The form must be completed in full detailing employment history and suitability for the position. It should be dated in employment history order.
- CVs may be sent in but all applicants must complete the application form in order to be considered for the position.
- Candidates will be shortlisted according to the relevance of their professional qualifications, skills and personal qualities that they can bring to the role.
- Shortlisted candidates will be invited for a formal interview. Candidates may bring along accompanying information that they feel is relevant for the position in which they have applied.
- The interview may require a skills test. The expectation is that Teaching Staff will deliver a 30-minute lesson (candidates will be briefed in advance) and Support Staff may be asked to perform a skills test.
- All formal interviews will have a minimum of 2 people; one of whom will have undertaken safer recruitment training.
- Candidates may be selected for further shortlisting on the day of the interview.
- EAT commits to informing candidates within 3 working days of the outcome.

- An offer of employment following the formal interview will be conditional subject to:
 - ❖ A successful enhanced disclosure and barring service check
 - ❖ Confirmation that you are not barred from working with children
 - ❖ That you are not subject to a direction under section 142 of the Education Act 2002
 - ❖ That you are not subject to a direction under 128 of the Education and Skills Act 2008
 - ❖ That you are not disqualified from providing childcare in connection with early or later years' provision
 - ❖ Verification of the applicant's identity
 - ❖ Satisfactory and positive references received (two)
 - ❖ A satisfactory pre-employment health declaration
 - ❖ Verification of professional qualifications
 - ❖ Verification of the applicant's right to live and work in the UK (where the applicant is not a citizen of a country within the EU)
 - ❖ Any further checks which are necessary as a result of the applicant having lived or working outside of the UK
 - ❖ Any other deemed relevant checks i.e. for teaching positions confirmation that applicants are not subject to a prohibition order.
 - ❖ Applicants signing and agreeing to a mutually acceptable start date and agreeing to the standard terms and conditions of employment.

Pre-employment checks

All applicants are subject to the necessary checks. The enhanced disclosure and barring service check will require original identification as required by the policy.

Applicants must ensure that they arrange a time to meet with HR prior to their start date to show their original disclosure certificate. Employment will remain conditional until the original certificate has been provided and deemed satisfactory by EAT.

Valid Identity Documentation:

Group 1

- ❖ Current valid passport
- ❖ Biometric residence permit (UK)
- ❖ Current driving licence (full or provisional) with photo card.

You will also be required to provide history of your address by month and year for the last 5 years.

Pre-employment health declaration

Applicants must complete the pre-employment health declaration. It may be necessary for HR to discuss what has been disclosed on the declaration or for the applicant to attend an Occupational Health referral to consider their fitness for the role. The Equality Act will apply.

References

References will be requested prior to shortlisting. References sent after an offer of employment will ask for health and sickness records at this time. All referees will be asked whether they believe the applicant is suitable for the job in which they have applied and whether they have any reason to believe that the applicant is unsuitable to work with children.

Questions will include:

- Confirmation of the dates of employment, job title, reason for leaving, performance and disciplinary record
- Whether the applicant has ever been the subject of disciplinary procedures involving issues related to the safety and welfare of children.

Please note that references will be taken up with the current or most recent employer.

Contract of Employment

Your contract of employment will comprise the following documentation:

- Letter outlining the details of your post, including start date, pay scale and continuous service (if relevant). It is the post holder's responsibility to inform HR of any change in circumstances or if any of the information on the contract letter is incorrect.
